

Abbey Grove, Manchester, M30 9QN

£650 Per calendar month

Abbey Lodge was once a Tudor style manor house that has been tastefully renovated into lush apartments. The imposing main road building is set on the cusp of Ellesmere Park, an attractive, desirable leafy suburb. This area has an old warm charm bursting with characterful period properties and tree lined roads, strolling around would surely be a pleasure. Monton Village with its bustling high street is close at hand whether you are heading out for a fun evening or weekend, here you will find heaps to keep you occupied, meandering your way around from restaurant to deli, to wine bar along with your daily comforts of a post office, mini supermarket and independent shops. The apartment is just as lovely as the area it lies in, inside you will feel at home, the living area oozes comfort with a real cosy feel, leading from this you have a beautifully modern kitchen area, a separate dining area detailed with an exposed brick wall, two pleasingly sized bedrooms with a feeling of grandeur to the master bedroom and a sleek, contemporary tiled bathroom with corner bath. Apartments of this standard with this location rarely are seen. To set up home here would be a lovely thing! AVAILABLE MID JULY
