

Guide Price £475,000

An extended four bedroom semi detached house in a cul de sac location ideally located for local amenities and public transport links including Grove Park Station for fast direct trains to Central London.

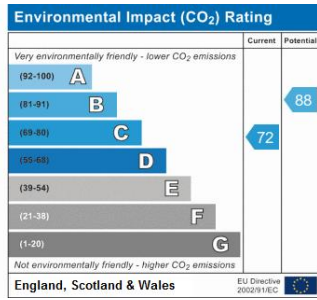

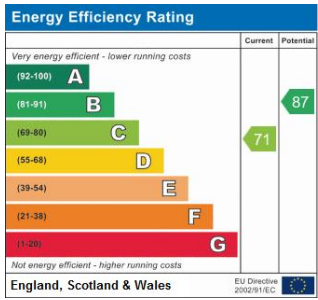

This well presented property offers ample living space and four good sized bedrooms with a spacious kitchen, two bathrooms and conservatory. To the rear is a well maintained rear garden measuring 36'11 x 26'1.

Having been extended to the ground floor, bedroom four benefits from its own shower room and offers flexible accommodation for use as an additional dining room/living space if required. The property also benefits from off street parking to the front.

The property is well located for local bus services to Bromley town centre and Intu shopping mall and is ideally located for local schools including Burnt Ash Primary School.

Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate this larger than average house.
